

Local Law Firm to Host Free Informational Seminar in Delray Beach

Published on Friday, January 23 2015 08:49

SOUTH FLORIDA – Leading Florida community association law Firm Kaye Bender Rembaum has announced it will be hosting a free town hall meeting on Wednesday, February 11 at 9:30 a.m. at South County Civic Center in Delray Beach as part of its seventh annual town hall meeting series. Kaye Bender Rembaum attorneys will discuss industry hot topics, including the 2014 legislative changes, assistance animal issues and more, as well as answer community association-related questions from board members, residents and property managers of condominium, homeowner and cooperative associations.

"For the past six years, we have hosted these town hall meetings throughout Broward, Miami Dade and Palm Beach counties in an effort to help answer questions from local community association leaders in an informal setting. They need this pertinent information to effectively and efficiently run their communities," said Robert L. Kaye, Esq., Managing Firm Member of Kaye Bender Rembaum.

South County Community Center is located at 16700 Jog Road in Delray Beach. Interested attendees should RSVP and send questions or topics for discussion to KBRLegalSeminar@piersongrant.com or call 954-776-1999, ext. 236.

Kaye Bender Rembaum is a full-service commercial law firm concentrating on the representation of more than 800 community associations throughout Florida. With offices in Broward and Palm Beach counties, the Firm is ranked ninth in South Florida and 62nd in the South among "Top 300 Small Businesses" by Business Leader magazine, and was awarded the 2014 Readers' Choice Award for Legal Services by the Florida Community Association Journal.
