

ATTORNEY AT LAW

MAGAZINE

March 24, 2016

Deborah Benson & Andrew Black Promoted to Members

Leading Florida community association law firm Kaye Bender Rembaum has announced that Deborah Benson, Esq. and Andrew Black, Esq. have been promoted to the new position of members of the firm.

"Deborah and Andrew are longtime associates of our Firm. They are both talented attorneys deserving of this promotion. In fact they are the first two attorneys in our Firm to be promoted to this position," said Robert Kaye, Esq., Managing Firm Member of Kaye Bender Rembaum. "We appreciate their dedication to our clients, passion for the work we do and commitment to the Firm."

Benson graduated from the State University of New York at Binghamton with a Bachelor of Arts Degree in Psychology and a Juris Doctor from the Shepard Broad Law Center at Nova Southeastern University. In 1993, she joined Kaye & Roger as an associate. She stayed with the Firm when it became Robert Kaye & Associates serving as supervising attorney for collections, foreclosures and bankruptcies. Benson continues in this role at Kaye Bender Rembaum where her additional areas of emphasis include covenant enforcement, commercial litigation, probate and guardianship matters.

Black received a Bachelor of Arts in English Literature from University of Miami and a Juris Doctor from Nova Southeastern University. In law school, Black was a senior staff member of the Nova Law Review and was the recipient of the Nova Law Review Team Player Award for his contributions. He also was a judicial clerk for the Honorable Robert B. Carney in the 17th Circuit Court in Fort Lauderdale, as well as the research and teaching assistant for the Lawyering Skills and Values Course. Black joined Robert Kaye & Associates in 2007 and stayed with the Firm when it became Kaye Bender Rembaum, assisting the Firm's association clients on all aspects of community association operation. Black conducts board member certification classes and is a frequent speaker on various topics of interest to community association boards of directors, managers and owners.

Kaye Bender Rembaum is a full-service commercial law firm concentrating on the representation of community associations throughout Florida with offices in Broward and Palm Beach counties. Benson and Black are based in the Firm's office in Pompano Beach.

Kaye Bender Rembaum is ranked ninth in South Florida and 62nd in the South among "Top 300 Small Businesses" by Business Leader magazine, and was awarded the 2014, 2015 and 2016 Readers' Choice Award for Legal Services by the Florida Community Association Journal three years consecutively. Kaye and Firm Member Michael Bender are guests the first Thursday of each month on Ask the Experts, a weekly radio show airing from 5 to 6 p.m. on WWNN 1470 AM and streams on KBRLegal.com, iHeart Radio, YouTube and U Stream.